

PUBLISHER TO ADDRESS CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE

Herman H. Ridder, publisher of the Long Beach Press-Telegram and independent, will be the guest speaker tonight as the Torrance Chamber of Commerce entertains the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce at the Fish Shanty of Walteria.

A business meeting will be conducted by Dale Isenberg, executive secretary of the Torrance Chamber, beginning at 5:30. The regular meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Judge Otto B. Willett will review the propositions to be presented to the voters on the November ballot during the evening's program, Isenberg said. Representatives from Domin-

Columbia Steel Management Club To Meet Friday

Management Club of Columbia Steel Co. will hold its monthly meeting tomorrow evening at the Palos Verdes Country Club. L. W. Roe, assistant controller in charge of costs and statistics for the Columbia-Geneva division of U. S. Steel, will talk on "Costs and Statistics functions of the Home Office as they relate to operations," according to A. L. Puetz, works auditor who is program chairman.

Following Roe's discussion, Daniel G. Strelbel, of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., will discuss and demonstrate the microwave radio relay as used by the Bell System for the transmission of television programs and for long-distance telephone calls.

Strelbel will discuss in simplified terms, the operation of microwave radio relay as it is employed by the Bell System today on some 18,000 channel miles of its intercity television network routes.

The speaker will show how the microwaves are beamed like a searchlight in a direct line along a series of relay stations constructed at intervals of about 80 miles.

Strelbel started his communications career with Pacific Telephone in 1940. A graduate of the University of Southern California, he served as an Army captain during World War II in the Mediterranean and China-Burma-India theaters and in the Persian Gulf Command.

Local Man in Fatal Los Angeles Accident

Vince Giordano, 18, of 16702 Ermanita St., was listed by police as driver of a car which struck and killed James E. De George, 62, of Los Angeles, Saturday night. Police said Giordano has not been held.

'Success Story' To Televis Columbia Steel

Spectacular views of the blazing furnaces in the open hearth and red hot ribbons of steel passing through the rolls at the Torrance Plant of the Columbia-Geneva Division of U. S. Steel will be tomorrow's feature of "Success Story" over Station KPTV, Channel 11, from 7 to 7:30 p.m.

This live program will show the actual making of steel and how it is formed into various products. Four cameras will be trained on workers and equipment of Columbia's Open Hearth and Rolling Mill Department to bring the picture to the public. The program is sponsored by the Richfield Oil Corporation.

Carson Cracker Barrel

We have an announcement of a new arrival first thing out of the barrel! A little white rat named "Koko" joined the Charley Linn family last Saturday night. He won't be lonesome because the little Lins, Charlie and Barbara, are well supplied with pets. They have two cats, two turtles a bowl of gold fish, eleven baby rabbits, and a pony named "Butchie" and three crickets, just for luck! What wonderful memories these lucky kids are storing up.

The regular monthly meeting of the Harbor Area Welfare Council was held last Thursday in the American Legion Hall in Wilmington. Those attending from this area were Mrs. M. Q. Wallace and Mrs. McCormick, principal and vice-principal of Carson St. School; Mrs. W. P. Carey, welfare chairman, Carson St. PTA, and Mrs. A. Barkan. Members enjoyed an excellent luncheon and a fine program, which dealt with religious counseling, both at an institutional and an everyday level.

Busy days for the teachers at Carson St. School. Down from the Southern District office to work with them on Monday of this week was Alice Mahoney, fifth and sixth grade supervisor. Then on Wednesday, Mildred Fletcher, third and fourth grade supervisor, was on hand to advise the teachers of those grades. The Carson St. teachers are planning a school demonstration to be presented to other teachers of the area, and the bulletins and other materials received from the supervisors are of great help, they say.

Campfire Girl and Bluebird leaders are sending out an urgent SOS. They have come up against two major barriers, and have been forced to suspend meetings temporarily. First, half-day sessions have robbed them of their meeting room at Carson St. PTA, and Mrs. A. Barkan. Members enjoyed an excellent luncheon and a fine program, which dealt with religious counseling, both at an institutional and an everyday level.

leaders. The present leaders, Mrs. Richard Landon, Mrs. D. Jones, Mrs. C. Linn and Mrs. K. Norcross of the Bluebirds, have worked hard organizing two fine groups. The little girls are going to be very disappointed if they must completely disband. Two leaders are needed for the Bluebirds.

The Campfire Girls' leader, Mrs. June Lewis, is also seeking an interested leader to form a new group of the younger girls. If you are interested in this work, or know of a room they might use, please call Mrs. C. Linn at Terminal 4-8641.

Harbor area high school football teams will participate in the annual "Milk Bowl" games in the Los Angeles Coliseum Friday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m. Proceeds of this game are used by the 10th District PTA Welfare Fund to buy food, milk and clothing for needy children. The schools provide very fine entertainment between halves, and a good time is assured all who attend. Tickets are on sale now, $1 for adults or 50 cents for children. Call Mrs. Ted Carter at Torrance 2-8R, or your reporter for further information.

Something new in the way of membership drives has been planned for Carson St. PTA, announces its membership chairman, Mrs. Robert Minchow. She plans to make it a one-day affair, and has set aside Oct. 22 for that day. Envelopes will be sent home with the children several days before for your fees, and she is hoping everyone will respond. The room attaining 100 per cent first will receive a nice prize. Mrs. Minchow says that the prize will be decided at the next meeting of the PTA board.

A few little crumbs from the Carson St. PTA... Board members attended the "School of Information" last Friday in San Pedro. All came away inspired to work even harder for the welfare of children. Mrs. June Lewis, program chairman, informs us that the programs are in the hands of the printer and will be ready by the November meeting. Mrs. Dorothy Jones, room mother chairman, is seeking as many new room mothers as possible. She has called a meeting for such mothers for Thursday, Oct. 9 at 9:30 a.m. at the school. The executive board will hold its October meeting tomorrow, Oct. 10 at 9:30 a.m., and the next association meeting is Oct. 16 at 2:30 p.m.

Many City Jobs Open; Deadline Set October 16

Employment opportunities with the City of Torrance were revealed this week as the deadline for filing applications, Oct. 16, grows nearer.

Further information and applications can be obtained at the office of the Personnel Clerk, Room 2, Torrance City Hall.

Openings and brief requirements, plus salary range, in children's birthday parties—they are harder on mothers than a political convention, and they tear up a house worse than a rodeo—yet we go on year after year, baking cakes, buying pop and ice cream (to be cleared off the floor later by us, of course), shouting ourselves hoarse and pulling tendons playing games—And for what? Well, I'll tell you—because there is always that one hushed moment when you carry in the candlelit cake to a chorus of "ohs! and ahs!" that makes the whole thing worth it.
